DIRECT PARENT (PLUS) LOAN FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Available for parents of dependent undergraduate students

PLUS loans are not based upon need

PLUS loan funds will be electronically submitted directly to GIA on your behalf

PRIVATE EDUCATION LOAN

Private education loans are offered by private lenders and can be used to supplement other financial assistance. These loans are not guaranteed by the federal government. Students may borrow up to the cost of attendance for their enrolled program, minus any financial aid received.

Approval, repayment terms, and interest rates are determined by the private lenders. Borrowers and their cosigners must meet the lender's credit-worthiness requirements.

We strongly recommend applying, for Federal Aid before considering a private educational loan.

Submit Form to:

financialaid@gia.edu or

GIA, Robert Mouawad Campus, Office of Student Financial Assistance, MS 7, 5345 Armada Drive, Carlsbad, CA 92008

Once GIA receives your electronic FAFSA results and your GIA Financial Aid form, you will be sent via email an Estimated Eligibility Letter explaining your aid eligibility or a follow up secured email requesting additional information.

After first payment, and submission of the required admissions documents are received, admissions will confirm enrollment. We will contact you via email approximately two-to-three weeks before your start date, by email with a confirmation of your financial aid, and ask you to complete the Federal Entrance Counseling and in person entrance counseling.

Important Note: Students are required to pay the first payment at the time of enrollment if there anticipated aid and estimated funding does not cover the full tuition.
