

Submitting Your Application and Registration

Please read the instructions below before completing the on-campus application which immediately follows this page. Information submitted to Admissions by prospective applicants will not be retained if the applicant does not enroll within the calendar year.

How to Apply and Deadlines

All pages of the application must be completed.

Required documents must be received by GIA to be considered for on-campus admission. You will not be able to reserve space in any program or course until GIA has received all required fees and documents. Submit your completed application and registration form and required documents to the campus in which you wish to attend.

You may also apply online by visiting:
GIA.edu/gem-education/admissions

There are no application deadlines. Although GIA holds classes year-round, on-campus programs typically reach capacity at least 2 to 3 months in advance, so we encourage you to apply at least 3 to 4 months before the start date. If a class reaches capacity, you will be placed on a wait list and notified if a seat becomes available.

Educational services and shipping to some countries may be restricted by U.S. law. GIA fully complies with any and all U.S. laws and therefore may be unable to accept enrollments from certain countries. Contact GIA Admissions if you have questions about such conditions.

All Applicants: If your legal name has changed, and your required documents reflect a previous name, please also submit a legal name change document, such as a marriage certificate.

Enrollment Checklist

All Applicants

Have you...

- Reviewed all admissions policies and procedures detailed in the GIA Education Catalog?
- Answered all applicable questions on the application and registration form?
- Provided your full legal name? This is how your name will appear on all official GIA documents, including credentials, certificates, and diplomas.
- Provided your Social Security Number (or Taxpayer ID Number) if you have one?†
- Given a physical permanent home address and your mailing address?
- Selected your diploma programs and courses?
- Selected and filled in your first and second choice Start Dates from the U.S. On-Campus Program Schedule on page 8?
- Reviewed the Tuition and Fees and Schedule of Student Charges on pages 6-7 and filled in all applicable charges correctly?
- Reviewed Cancellation and Refund Policies in the most current version of the GIA Education Catalog?
- Selected your method of payment for all applicable tuition and fees?
- Signed your application?
- Sent your application and registration to Admissions?

† Social Security Number: Federal legislation requires that all postsecondary institutions report student Social Security Numbers (SSN's) or Taxpayer ID Numbers (TIN's) to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). This IRS requirement makes it necessary for us to request the SSN or TIN of every student. Students that do not have a SSN or TIN (e.g. those who are not U. S. citizens or permanent residents) are exempt from this requirement. A student may refuse to disclose his or her SSN or TIN, but the student may then be subject to fines by the IRS. Failure to disclose their SSN or TIN may also render a student ineligible for financial aid and certain tax credits. GIA has a strong commitment to ensuring the privacy and confidentiality of student records and will not disclose your SSN or TIN without your consent for any purpose except as allowed by law.

‡ All Applicants: If your legal name has changed, and your required documents reflect a previous name, please also submit a legal name change document, such as a marriage certificate.

Student Privacy Notification and Acknowledgment

Student Privacy Policy

The controller of your personal data is GIA, Inc., The Robert Mouawad Campus, 5345 Armada Drive, Carlsbad, CA 92008 USA and the GIA Campus Location to which you are enrolled ("GIA"). Contact details may be found at GIA.edu/privacy-policy. You have related rights under Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") details may be found at GIA.edu/privacy-policy

GIA and its affiliates, branch offices and subsidiaries (collectively "GIA") seek to protect the privacy and security of information relating to an identified or identifiable individual ("Personal Data") in their possession or control. This Student Privacy Policy ("Policy") is intended to demonstrate and define GIA's requirement to follow strict guidelines in protecting the Personal Data of its students whose Personal Data it receives through its operations. GIA maintains the Personal Data it collects for legal, business and other legitimate purposes and takes reasonable physical and electronic security measures to protect the Personal Data in its possession. GIA also ensures that others who are permitted to access such Personal Data, such as non-affiliated third-party service providers or vendors, act in accordance with GIA's policies and procedures and all applicable Data Protection laws with respect to such Personal Data.

Personal Data

Personal Data that may be collected and used about you may include student name; (email) address, phone number and further contact information; details about your enrollment, such as fields of study, dates of enrollment, degrees, diplomas, certificates awarded, dates conferred, academic honors and awards received; financial and payment records; electronic video and audio monitoring records. Providing your Personal Data is voluntary. Please note, however, that without your personal data, we may be unable to provide you with the information and services described in this Policy.

Purposes, Legal Basis and Retention Term

GIA may use the above Personal Data to provide you with education and related services you requested from us on the basis of the performance of our contract with you. We will retain your Personal Data for as long as it is required for purposes for which it was collected. This will be, for example, for as long as necessary in view of the student relationship until the end thereof, plus the length of any applicable statutory limitation period. Furthermore, we may use your Personal Data for security and emergency purposes and to monitor compliance with our existing policies and procedures. We do so on the basis of for compliance with a legal obligation or for our legitimate interests to protect our business, locations, workers and other parties. This data will be retained as long as necessary in view of our legal obligations and legal claims, plus the length of any applicable statutory limitation period. Also, data may be used for direct marketing purposes on the basis of our legitimate interests in keeping you updated about news, offers and related communications, or on the basis of your consent. This data will be retained until you withdraw your consent or opt-out from receiving these communications as described below. We may notify you from time to time if we change the purposes of the use of your Personal Data.

Disclosure and Transfers

For the purposes described above, your personal data may be accessible by authorized employees of GIA, Inc., GIA-affiliated entities and your GIA Campus Location and service providers acting on our behalf on a need-to-know basis. Also, your Personal Data may be disclosed to law enforcement bodies where required in view of the above purposes. Such access and disclosures may involve transfer of your personal data outside your home country to third countries that do not provide for an adequate level of protection, such as the United States. Where legally required, we use transfer arrangements on the basis of standard data protection clauses adopted by the EU Commission, of which you may request a copy via privacy@gia.edu as from 25 May 2018.

Your Rights

Subject to the conditions set forth in applicable law, you may access, update, correct and/or request removal of your Personal Data from our databases and you may request that we restrict the processing of your Personal Data; you may object to the processing of your Personal Data where we rely on our legitimate interests; where we rely on your consent for the use of your Personal Data, you may withdraw your consent at any time; and lastly, you may request that we provide your Personal Data in machine readable format where applicable law requires us to do so. Note that some of these rights only apply as from 25 May 2018. Please see below our contact details for exercising these rights.

Student Video and Audio Monitoring

Due to the nature of its business, GIA must ensure the integrity and security of its premises and processes, including but not limited to customer service and the handling of valuable customer property. Accordingly, GIA uses both electronic video and audio monitoring in the workplace. The monitored content may include students' personal data, including without limitation video recordings, audio recordings, footage and photographs of students, casual communications near these locations, and name or any other personal data revealed in video or audio recordings. We do so on the basis of compliance with a legal obligation or for our legitimate interests to protect our business, locations, workers and other parties. Students should not have an expectation of privacy in any public or work areas (GIA does not monitor restrooms or dressing areas). Each facility has signage posted in the locations where video and audio monitoring is/are occurring.

Storage, Transfer, and Disclosure of Information

The recorded information of video and audio monitoring will be handled and retained in accordance with legal obligations. GIA will retain recorded information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the uses described above and no longer than the extent permitted by applicable law. Recordings may be disclosed to law enforcement, GIA-affiliated entities (see GIA.edu/privacy-policy), and other third parties (e.g. to a court of law), as necessary for the purposes described above. Such disclosures may result in the transfer of recorded information outside your home country in connection. GIA may store recorded information in the United States for the purposes above. We may also transfer your recorded information outside your home country to the jurisdictions in which the parties noted above are located, which countries may not have the same level of data protection as in your home country. Where legally required, we use transfer arrangements on the basis of standard data protection clauses adopted by the EU Commission, of which you may request a copy via privacy@gia.edu as from 25 May 2018.

Your Rights, Questions and Complaints

In accordance with applicable law, GIA reserves the right to expand its use of video and audio monitoring on its premises, if necessary. Where legally required, you will be informed thereof in advance. If you have any questions regarding this Policy or if you wish to exercise your rights regarding your Personal Data as described, please contact privacy@gia.edu. In addition, to object receiving our marketing communications, you can use the unsubscribe link inserted in our communications at any time. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you consider that our use of your personal data infringes this Policy or applicable law.

Applicant Consent

I have read and agree to this notice. I understand and agree that GIA may collect, use, transfer and disclose Personal Data about me as described above. I also agree that, under applicable law, some Personal Data can be collected, used, processed, transferred or disclosed without prior notification to me and that GIA reserves the right to undertake that activity when appropriate.

GIA will transfer, process and store your Personal Information in accordance with this notice and the GIA Privacy Policy.

Marketing Materials

GIA will not provide your contact information to non-affiliated third parties for their own direct marketing purposes.

- Please check here if you do not want GIA to send you marketing materials via email. Please note that if you check this box, GIA will continue to send you non-marketing related communications (such as status of your program participation) via email.

Applicant Acknowledgement

I have read and understand this notice applicable to the processing of my Personal Data by GIA. I understand and acknowledge that GIA may collect, use, transfer and disclose Personal Data about me as described above.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF)

The California Student Tuition Recovery Fund assessment is a variable rate as determined under California law. Effective January 1, 2015, the STRF assessment has been reduced to $0, but is subject to change pursuant to California Education Code section 94923 and implementing regulations.

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans; and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program; or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency programs attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

"Residency Program" means an educational course or program offered by an institution that has approval to operate in California, when the instruction occurs in California directly (face-to-face) between the student and the faculty member(s). Example: An individual who resides outside of California and enrolls in a course that requires him/her to be physically present in California to complete the course is required to pay STRF.
